PERSONAL INFORMATION

E=mZ² Inc. respects your desire for privacy. This program stores specific personal, usage and testing data about you. The type of data collected depends upon the exact specifications of your employer. The system can include personally identifiable demographic information, test results, performance results, and usage data. The purpose of storing that data is to help monitor your progress; however, as the licensee of this program, your data is accessible by the designated program administrator(s) within your company for report development. In addition, at your employer's request, E=mZ² Inc. may prepare reports for your employer. E=mZ² Inc. is committed to providing a suitable and consistent level of protection for your personal information. E=mZ² Inc. uses the highest levels of security to protect the integrity of our customer data.

By accessing this site you consent to the collection and usage of this data. Please contact us with any questions you may have regarding the use of this data. If you have questions about this, please email us at momentium@emz2.ca.
